

| Overview of Village Committees |

Arts and Culture Committee: Leads various programs at the Williamsville Meeting House, including plays and music and speaking events.

Beautification Committee: Assists the village-sponsored plantings, such as at Village Hall, the 1812 Garden at Evans Street, the Meeting House, Garrison Park and Pocket Park.

Environmental Advisory Committee: Discusses environmental issues, green space, and makes recommendations to the Village Board of Trustees.

Glen Park Joint Board: Assists with the oversight and planning of Glen Park, which is jointly owned by the Village of Williamsville and the Town of Amherst.

Historic Preservation Commission: Reviews and recommends designation of historic landmarks, sites and districts to the Village Board; conducts surveys of landmarks within the village and reviews proposed work on properties that are historically designated.

Meeting House Committee: Oversees the use and planned improvements to the historic Williamsville Meeting House.

Parks Committee: Plans for park improvements and makes recommendations to the Village Board of Trustees.

Planning Board: This decision-making body reviews site plans and other items it receives, including building and façade renovations and signage in the commercial district.

Traffic and Safety Committee: Makes recommendations to the Village Board of Trustees on various traffic and safety-related items, such as stop signs, proposed changes to parking areas, changes to ingress and egress of commercial properties, etc.

Tree Board: This board has various duties, including developing and/or updating and administering a Tree Risk Management Plan for the care, preservation, pruning, planting, replanting, removal or disposition of trees in parks, along streets and in other public areas.

Youth and Recreation Committee: Plans and leads various youth-related events, such as Movies in the Park, Storytime in the Village, Winterfest, the Halloween parade and party, and the holiday tree lighting.

Zoning Board of Appeals: This decision-making body reviews requests from applications for variances from the Village of Williamsville's code.